terminate on the fourth of January. As soon as the McQuade case is permanently disposed of it is said that Jacob Sharpe, the briber, will be put on trial. The announcement is made that Representative Viele, of New York, will be given the Turkish mission. At the last session of Congress Mr. Viele voted against. the Morrison bill and on Saturday last he voted for it. It seems to be accepted as a fact that Congressmun J. W. Reid of North Carolina has taken refuge in Canada. A petition is in circulation in his district asking the House of Representatitives to expel him, so that the people can full his place Grand Master Powderly's action in forhidding the Chicago Knights of Labor to False funds and seek to create a feeling of sympthy for the condemned anarchists, will be universally approved. There should be no affiliation between houest labor and brurdt murderers. Mr. Boutelle's bill providing for a new public huilding at Eastport passed the House unsulmously yesterday. It has already passed the Senate and now only awaits the approval of the President. This will be good news to our friends of the frontier city.

In his address before th: Commonwealth Club, at New York, Tuesday, Carl Schurz said the Democratic party is in favor of free trade. That is the whole truth of the matter, but in the next cumpaign we shull again have that party attempting to straddle both sides of the question. They are afraid to go to the people in an honest contest on the issue protection vs. free

At the meeting of the New York Commonwealth Club Mr. Elih 1 Root said that as confessions of faith seemed to be in order, he wished to be allowed to introduce himself as a Republican and a partisan. He said that men w io had once left a party should not stand upon the fence waiting for some one to haul thent over. Following the address of Mr. Schurz this was a hard rap at the Mugwumps.

The fact of the growth of the protection sentiment in the South, as shown in the recent elections, was again, illustrated in the House, Saturday, when Representative Balletine, of Tennessec, voted against the Morrison bill. Referring to to this change in his attitude Mr. Balletine said: "I will say that I have been an early and constant friend of Colonel Morrison in his tariff controversy, but the recent developments in my own State, growing as it is with-marvellous rapidity in metalturgical and other industries, not to speak of the question in its national aspects and particularly in the South at large, have convinced a me that we Democrats of the South must look at this question in the light of modêrn progress and not according to the economic and labor conditions of the South 25 and 30 years ago."

The nomination of William A. Walker to be United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin is his reward for "offensive partrership," says a Washington despatch. He is chairman of the Democratic State Committee, which undertook to defeat the re election of Governor Rusk and to elect a Democratic Legislature for the benefit of Reformer Vilus. Another chairman of a Lemocratic committee whom the Administration is anxious to reward is "Eb" Henderson, of Indiana, whose appointment as Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue is to take effect; it is said, on January 1. There seems to be some doubt about Henderson's Confirmation by the Sunate, and it is unstatutes had been made, in the hope of floding some provision which might afford a present for his appointment, without his being compelled to run the Senstorial gauntlet. Henderson has told a friend hat enough law has been found pish a basis for such action." It certainly is not to be found in the statute books.

Mr. Blaine was given a grand reception at the celebration of Pilgrim's Day, in Boston, Tuesday. The Boston Herald says: "The scene in Musi: Half when he rose to speak, and the Orthodox ministers and people saw before them the heir expectant of the American throne, is not easily described. For the moment the enthusiasm knew no bounds. It was like a nomination at a national convention. The thought came, and stayed, that the Congregational Church and the Republican party are identical, but Mr. Blaide himself wisely abstained from anything like. a treatment of the subjects with which he is most familiar. He alluded to polities only once or twice, and then only to illustrate a thought which had nothing directly to do with them. His speech was almost entirely a layman s talk on subjects connected with the day, and was evidently inspired by the presence of a large number of the Orthodox c ergy. It was very enjoyable, and did as much credit to very enjoyable, and did as much credit to his heart as to his heard. It was very THAXTER & WISH, brilliant in parts, and its practical turn in urging Christian unity and in advising extempore preaching was taken in good part and will do good."

A Prompt Correction.

Yes it does make a difference. In the case of the Herald's criticism of Mr. Boutelle's bill the Washington correspondent learned that he had been misinformed and very promptly made the following correc-

(Special Despatch to the Boston Herald.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 20, 1896. A curious error has crept into the dispatches relative ito the bill for the erection of a public building at Eastpot, Me. It was stated a day or two ago that the bill offered to the House by Mr. Boutelle contained no appropriation for the proposed building, and that the bill which passed the Senate was to provide the necessary sum of $100,000. The lacts are that the bill introduced, by Mr. Hale in the Senate did not contain any appropriation whatever, but simply authorized the construction of a building, whereas Mr. Boutelle's bill was substituted for that of Mr. Hale by the Senate committee on public buildings and grounds, and was passed by the Senate che supendments having been made by the chairman of the committee, Mr. Mahone, at the instance of Senator Frya.

Mr. Boutelle's Bill Passed by the

(Special Despatch to the Whig and Courier.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 22. The House this morning unanimously passed

House this morning unanimously passed my bill for a new public building at Eastport, to replace that destroyed by fire. As some curious misrepresentations have obtained currency in regard to this measure, it may be worth while to state the facts. In the Senate, on Friday, the bill prepared for me by the Tréasury Department, with amendments prepared by me, at sadopted and passed as a substitute for the bill introduced by Senator Hale, which failed to provide for a change of site and made no appropriation of money. The passage of the bill by the House sends it to the President for approval. It provides for the sule of the old site and appropriation are one hundred thomsand dollars for the crection of a new building for a custom house, post-office and other Government offices on a new-site. I am under obligation to Senator Frye for aid in securing a proper somendment of the Senate bill in consultate, and especially to my collegues. Representatives Reed, Milliken countitiee, and especially to my col-prosperity of home industries or the com-pensation of home labor, was taken up and and Diogley, for cordial and valuable coand Biogley, for cordial and valuable corogeration in obtaining such unusually prompt and favorable action by the House.

Second Day's Proceedings.

Special to the Whig and Courier. At a USTSTA, Dec. 22, 1886. Tuesday evening was occupied with work in the fifth degree and explanations by the National Laritarer. There was no business of pube interest transacted. At the assembling of the delegates this morning it was found there were many new arrivals, making the attendance much larger than yesterday. The National Lecturer, Mr. Whitehead, gave a particular account of the manner in which the work of the grange should be conducted and deeply impressed his hearer, and by his happy hits and eloquence interested and at the same time highly amused the sudience.
